So...tired of shoveling snow yet? Spring could not get here soon enough! I'm feeling a little cabin fever and soon it will be spring fever. Right now, I'm feeling like I have a clear case of shopping fever...shopping in Ledgeview that is...Let's have a little fun and go shopping in Ledgeview together.

Monday—My mission today is to update my landscaping. I don't know about you, but if I don't get my caffeine fix first thing in the morning, it is not a good day. The Ice House is on the way and a mocha sounds like a great idea. Then it is off to visit Ron at Willems Landscape where I can purchase some new shrubs. Next, Stone Silo. Ceci will know what kind of wild-flowers will look nice. Of course, I can't forget to stop by Dan at A-1 Sharpening for all of my garden tool sharpening needs. It's almost noon and I am starving. I wonder what Julie is cooking up today at Dash 4 Dinner? After lunch I am feeling like I am well on my way to sprucing up the yard so now I better run to the bank. Mary at Associated Bank is always so nice to work with and I have been considering opening a new checking account. On the way home, I will stop and see Rick for an oil change at Ledgeview Lube. All of this running around has left me too tired to cook. We are ordering delivery from the Graystone Ale House tonight!

Tuesday—This morning my focus is home maintenance. Got to call Russ at Healthy Home Heating and Cooling first thing this morning and make an appointment to have the air conditioning checked. The summer heat will be here before you know it. Next, I need to call Tom at Ground Source and have the well inspected. I remember Lori at Future Technologies sharing ideas on how to save money on our electric bill, she is my next call. Lots to do this afternoon too. First I need to call Dr. Beth at Happy Tails and make an appointment for Jack the dog to get his shots. Then a call to Abbie at Photographic Aerts to schedule our new family portrait. I am so thirsty and need to fill up with gas, I'll make a quick stop at the City Limit Express/BP where I can get a free soda when I purchase gas—makes perfect sense! When I get back home, I have one last call to make. I have been thinking about switching daycares. I wonder what Crystal at Kinder-Care has to offer?

Wednesday—I am still on a tear as I shop my way through Ledgeview....Today is a fun day since I have to get back to work tomorrow. I am planning a family vacation and have to call Dr. Richard at Countryside Animal Complex to get information on boarding Jack. Tomorrow is Aunt Lucy's birthday and of course I did not get her a gift yet, I'll just call Wayne at Edible Arrange- ments and order her a fun fruit bouquet. Then I am off to my Yoga class with Allie at Pedretti Yoga. I heard on the radio that mortgage rates are down so I will stop by M&I Bank and see Deb about refinancing. Enough of that boring business stuff, back to my fun day! Time to see Dr. Amy at Jakubovsky Chiropractic. I could use an adjustment! I will finish my fun day with Dia, the Mary Kay magician. Her products can make you look ten years younger.

Thursday—Back to work, but that does not mean I am done shopping in Ledgeview. The boss wants me to call Ed and Joan at ACR and find out what options they have in ventilation units. On the way to lunch I need to stop by and see Mike at Eclipse Printing and pick up our new product flyers he designed. On the way back from lunch, I need to stop by NorthShore Bank and make a deposit for the boss.

OK, so this may have gotten a bit silly, but these are all local businesses that participate in the LBA discount program. Look at the opportunities you have to save money and support local business every day by shopping in Ledgeview.

If you are a member and are not participating, give us a call for suggestions on how your business can become a discount club member. If you are unable to offer a discount, you may be able to offer a "free gift."

The participating business listing is growing weekly. Check out the website before you head out the door on your next shopping adventure!

Thanks for shopping with me.
